

5th rendition
6th of June 2023.

PENAL CODE FOR THE STATE OF SAN ANDREAS

GOVERNED AND UPHELD BY THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

Bryan Barba

Bryan Barba

Governor of the State of San Andreas

Bob Builder

Bob Builder
Attorney General

J. Hill

Jimin Hill
Supreme Court Justice

Article 1. General Provisions

The Penal Code is a set of legislation relating to crimes and infractions of the state.

1.1 The general purpose of the Penal Code is as follows

- Outlines and determine misconduct that may cause harm to citizens of the state or public interest
- Outlines sentencing guidelines in relation to breaches of the Penal Code
- Outlines the Penal Code and accompanying breaches.
- Outlines the Penal Code and accompanying breaches.
- Outlines minor and major offenses.
- Outlines the provision of the impact of the offense.
- Outlines the provisions to ensure public safety.

1.2 Criminal liability ensures that a crime must be proven without a reasonable doubt in coalition with Article 2. Concepts and definitions, section 5. Of the Code of Procedures for the State of San Andreas.

1.3 The Penal Code outlines the following categories of felonies.

- Class E felony, fifteen (15) months imprisonment.
- Class D felony, thirty (30) months imprisonment.
- Class C felony, forty-five (45) months imprisonment.
- Class B felony, sixty (60) months imprisonment
- Class A felony, seventy-five (75) months imprisonment. Without the possibility of bail.

1.4 The Penal Code outlines the following categories of infractions.

- Class C infraction, a small infraction, entails a monetary penalty and/or revocation of driving license.
- Class B infraction, infractions of entails a monetary penalty and/or revocation of multiple licenses. Three (3) or more repeated violations of a Class B infraction is punishable by up to and including a Class D felony sentence.
- Class A infraction, infraction of entails a monetary penalty and revocation of multiple licenses. Three (3) or more repeated violations of a Class B infraction is punishable by up to and including a Class C felony sentence.
- Unclassified Infractions, infractions of a separate category, containing a unique in the procedural measures.

- 1.4.1 The Parole time for an infraction is seven (7) days. If a citizen commits an infraction within those days of their previous infraction, their parole is subject to change to a felony in accordance with Article 1.4.

1.5 Penal Code punishments

The Penal Code outlines nine (9) punishments, which may be applied, individually or in combination.

- Demotion
- Dismissal
- Inability to hold influential positions
- Prohibition of access
- Confiscation of property and/or licenses
- Detention, arrest, and imprisonment
- Prohibition of bail
- Restraining orders
- Monetary Penalty

Imprisonment

The maximum time of imprisonment per situation is seventy-five (75) months.

- 1.6 The joined participation of two (2) or more citizens in relation to a Penal violation may be seen as complicity.

- 1.6.1 Charges will be the same as the main suspect. A reduction of 50% is possible at the discretion of a Law Enforcement Officer subject to the evidence.

- 1.6.1.1 The above cannot apply to orders by the Department of Justice.

1.7 Exceptions to criminal liability.

- Self-defense as outlined in the legislative piece of Gun laws.
- Unintentional or Accidental acts.

- 1.8 A Law enforcement officer may apply exemption of criminal liability to a citizen for the first act of a Class E felony, by substituting imprisonment with entails a monetary penalty of no less than ten-thousand dollars ($10.000).

- 1.9 A law enforcement officer or the Department of Justice may at their discretion lower a sentence based on confession or cooperation.

Article 2. Crimes against society.

2.1 Possession of cocaine

2.1.1 Possession of cocaine in small quantities

Possessing cocaine in quantities no more than four (4) units.

Confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.1.2 Possession of cocaine in moderate quantities,

Possessing cocaine in quantities between five (5) to eight (8) units.

Confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.1.3 Possession of cocaine with intent to supply

Possessing cocaine in quantities larger than eight (8) units.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.2 Possession of cannabis

2.2.1 Possession of cannabis in small quantities

Possessing cannabis in quantities no more than ten (10) units.

Confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.2.2 Possession of cannabis in moderate quantities

Possessing cannabis in quantities eleven (11) or more units.

Confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.2.3 Possession of cannabis with intent to supply

Selling cannabis of any amount.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.2.4 Cultivation of cannabis

2.2.4.1 Cultivation of cannabis in small quantities

Cultivating cannabis quantities of five (5) or less

Categorized as a Class E felony, confiscation, entails a monetary penalty of sixteen thousand dollars ($16.000).

2.2.4.2 Cultivation of cannabis in large quantities

Cultivating cannabis quantities of six (6) or more.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation, entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000).

2.3 Usage of illicit substances in public

Consuming cocaine or cannabis in a public forum.

Confiscation and monetary penalty of ten thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.4 Prohibited items, defined as follows.

-
- All firearm without a serial number
 - State issued weapons or meleees.
 - Ballistic vest with state markings
 - Ballistic vest of any color except gray
 - Spare weapons parts
 - State issued facial covering.
 - Vehicle scanners
 - USB drives containing malicious software.
 - Engine blockers
 - Search Base Hack
 - Lockpick or key sets
 - Fake documentation
 - Anti-radar equipment
 - Counterfeit cash
 - People scanner
 - Alcohol (only in accordance with 2.4.1.2)
 - State issued articles and licenses (only in accordance with 2.4.1.2)
 - Medical supplies (only in accordance with 2.4.1.2)
 - Stolen goods (TVs, Furniture, Box of things, etc.)

Note: Engine blockers may be utilized by law enforcement agencies and their employees, during their official duties, so long it can be performed safely.

2.4.1 Possession of prohibited items in small quantities

Possessing any prohibited items, as mentioned in Penal Code article 2.4, in quantities of no more than three (3) units.

Categorized as a Class A infraction, confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.4.2 Possession of prohibited items in large quantities.

Possessing any prohibited items, as mentioned in Penal Code article 2.4, in quantities of more than three (3) units.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of fourteen thousand dollars ($14.000)

2.4.3 Sale of prohibited items in public shops

Sale of any prohibited items, as described in Penal Code article 2.4, in public shops.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.5 Firearm Offenses

Offenses in relation to the Firearm Laws marked below:

2.5.1 Carrying without a license

Carrying any weapons without the proper licenses.

Categorized as a Class A infraction, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.5.2 Overcarrying

Being in breach of the carrying limit as described in the Gun Law.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.5.3 Open carrying

Intentionally publicly displaying any object of which is commonly used to inflict bodily harm on a person.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation, revocation of gun license and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.5.4 Possession of any prohibited weapon

Being in possession of one (1) weapon of a prohibited origin, as mentioned in Penal Code article 2.4.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.5.5 Possession of multiple prohibited weapons.

Being in possession of more than one (1) weapon of prohibited origin. as mentioned in Penal Code article 2.4.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of forty thousand dollars ($40.000)

2.5.6 Brandishing of a weapon

Intentionally publicly displaying or usage of any weaponry, with the intent to scare and/or threaten.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation, revocation of gun license and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.5.7 Possession of state issued articles

Being in possession of state issued weaponry or otherwise unique equipment only available to state employees.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of forty thousand dollars ($40.000)

2.5.8 Discharging a weapon in a public place

The act of firing / discharging any type of weapon in an area that is accessible to the public.

Categorized as a Class E felony, confiscation, revocation of gun license and entails a monetary penalty of twelve thousand dollars ($12.000).

2.6 Infliction of physical injury or resulting in fatality

2.6.1 Non-lethal battery

Intentional infliction of non-lethal bodily harm without usage of objects where bullets, shells, or other missiles are propelled by explosive force.

Categorized as a Class E felony and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000).

2.6.2 Manslaughter

Unintentionally killing another citizen.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of fourteen thousand dollars ($14.000)

2.6.3 Assault by threat

Verbal assault where a likelihood of the threat's execution is present.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of fourteen thousand dollars ($14.000)

2.6.4 Attempted murder

Attempted murder, directly or indirectly, towards a citizen of the state.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.6.5 Murder through hostile action

Intentionally killing another citizen, without prior planning.

Categorized as a Class B felony and holds no right to bail, entails a monetary penalty of twenty-eight thousand dollars ($28.000)

2.6.6 Rape / Sexual Assault

Committing sexual acts through intercourses or penetration against the person's will.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.7 Negligence

2.7.1 Failure to act

Abandonment of a citizen whose life is in danger and who cannot take measures to combat the life-threatening condition themselves.

Categorized as a Class E felony and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.7.2 Refusal of duty to act

Refusing to act in the best interest of the general public by a civil servant.

Categorized as a Class C felony and dismissal of their position.

2.7.3 Failure to act by a civil servant

Abandonment of a citizen whose life is in danger and who cannot take measures to combat the life-threatening condition themselves, by a civil servant.

Categorized as a Class C felony and dismissal of their position.

2.8 Suppression of individual liberties.

2.8.1 Abduction

Unlawfully and forcibly taking someone against their will.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of forty thousand dollars ($40.000)

2.8.2 Kidnapping

Abduction and holding someone captive against their will.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of forty thousand dollars ($40.000)

2.8.3 Taking a hostage

Holding a person as security for the fulfillment of a condition.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of forty thousand dollars ($40.000)

Only one of 2.8 / 2.8.1 / 2.8.2 Penal Codes can be charged for every situation.

2.8.4 Human Trafficking

The organized facilitation of any type of labor or commercial sex act, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds on right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.8.5 Violation of privacy

Breaching, infringing, or violating the confidentiality or the right to privacy

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.8.6 Unlawful Detention

The act of depriving an individual of their freedom or liberty against their will, without legal justification or authority.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of sixteen thousand dollars ($16.000)

2.9 Bullying and disruptive actions

2.9.1 Street harassment

Rude, derogatory, or unwelcome comments, whistles, or any other unwelcome form of sexual verbal interaction.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.9.2 Sexual harassment

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.9.3 Harassment of a public servant

Act of engaging in unwanted / abusive behavior towards a public servant in the course of their duties.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-four thousand dollars ($24.000)

2.9.4 Stalking

Willfully and repeatedly following or harassing another person in circumstances that would cause a reasonable person to fear injury or death.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.9.5 Hooliganism

Causing tumultuous disturbance of the public peace.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.9.6 Rioting

Causing tumultuous disturbance of the public peace by three or more persons assembled and acting with a common intent.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.9.7 Spreading of disease

The intentional direct transfer of bacteria, viruses, or other germs from one person to another.

Categorized as a Class A infraction and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.9.8 Indecent exposure

Intentional exposure of part of one's body in a place where such exposure is likely to be an offense against the accepted standards of decency.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.9.9 Provoking

To induce someone to act or react as a direct result of one's deliberate acts to annoy or harass.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.9.10 Engaging in prostitution

Engaging, agreeing, or offering to engage in sexual conduct with another person in return for a fee.

Categorized as a Class C felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.10 Robbery and Fraud

2.10.1 Document forgery

Creating a document to give the appearance of legal significance to a fact that is untrue.

Categorized as a Class C felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.10.2 Looting of an Automated Teller Machine (ATM)

Unlawful taking of money from an Automated Teller Machine where no parties involved suffered bodily harm of any significance.

Categorized as a Class D felony, confiscation, and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.10.3 Theft of property

Taking property belonging to another without that person's consent, through means which does not cause bodily harm.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.10.4 Fraud

Fraud is a deliberate act with the intention of obtaining an unauthorized benefit, either for oneself or for the institution, by using deception or false suggestions or suppression of truth or other unethical means.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.10.5 Grand Theft Auto

Commandeering another person's vehicle, without permission and with the intent to deprive the owner of it permanently or significantly.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-eight thousand dollars ($28.000)

2.10.6 Robbery

Taking property unlawfully from a person or place by force or threat.

Categorized as a Class B, holds no right to bail felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.10.7 False advertisement

Publicly distributing an advertisement that contains an untrue, misleading, or deceptive representation or statement.

Categorized as a Class A infraction and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

2.11 Driving and vehicular related felonies

2.11.1 Reckless driving

Operating any vehicle in willful or wanton disregard to the traffic code.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.11.2 Injury by dangerous driving

Driving a motor vehicle in a manner that falls far below that expected of a competent and careful driver, causing injury to any person involved.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.11.3 Death by dangerous driving

Driving a motor vehicle in a manner that falls far below that expected of a competent and careful driver, resulting in death of any person involved.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52.000)

2.11.4 Failure to yield to an emergency service vehicle

Act of not granting the right of way or refusing to give priority to an approaching emergency vehicle that is displaying its light and/or sounding its sirens.

Categorized as a Class E felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twelve thousand dollars ($12.000)

2.12 Animal Cruelty

2.12.1 Animal abuse causing minor harm

Intentionally inflicting minor harm to a domesticated animal.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.12.2 Animal abuse causing major harm

Intentionally inflicting minor harm to a domesticated animal.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36.000)

2.12.3 Animal abuse resulting in death

Intentionally inflicting harm upon a domesticated animal, of which results in death.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

2.13 Miscellaneous and petty crimes

2.13.1 Attempted Suicide

Act in which an individual intentionally tries to end their own life but does not succeed in completing the act.

Categorized as a Class B infraction, and the suspect shall be sent to a mental health screening from the Emergency Medical Services.

2.13.2 Conspiracy to commit a crime

Criminal offense where two or more individuals agree to engage in unlawful conduct with the intent to commit a specific crime.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of sixteen thousand dollars ($16.000)

2.13.3 Vandalism

Willful or deliberate act of damaging, destroying, defacing, or altering public / private property without the owner's consent.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-eight thousand dollars ($28.000)

Note: The convicted vandal will be ordered to pay reparation to the victim of the crime in a court of law.

2.13.4 Illegal fishing

Unauthorized fishing in restricted or prohibited areas, such as the pond in Mirror Park.

Categorized as a Class B infraction and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

Article 3. Crime against the state

3.1 Terrorism and criminal groups

3.1.1 Participation in terrorism.

Participating, directly or indirectly, in an action, with the use of violence and intimidation in the pursuit of political aims.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.1.2 Terroristic act

The unlawful use of violence and intimidation in the pursuit of political aims.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.1.3 Organization of terrorism

Recruiting people with the intent of conjoining a political movement that uses terror as a weapon to achieve its goals.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

3.1.4 Leading a terrorist organization.

Being guidance or leadership in an organization, of which carries a political movement using terror.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of one hundred thousand dollars ($100.000)

Any participation of a terrorist act permits the state the seizing of any monetary income and sealing of any related business to the offender.

3.1.5 Creation of a stable armed group

Creating/developing or participating in the development of a community, with the purpose or intent of committing criminal activity.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.1.6 Banditry

Committing organized crime, involving the usage of threat of violence.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.2 Obstruction of Justice

Willfully interfering with the process of justice and law.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.3 Attempted seizure of power / Treason

Attempting illegal seizing of power by a political faction, rebel group, military, or a dictator, or adhering to state enemies, giving state enemies aid and comfort.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120.000)

3.4 Trespassing

3.4.1 Trespassing on private property

Entering and/or loitering unlawfully upon the land of another person.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twelve thousand dollars ($12.000)

3.4.1 Trespassing in a state facility

Entering and/or loitering unlawfully upon a state facility.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25.000)

3.4.2 Breaking and entering

Forcing or otherwise gaining unlawful passage into and entering another's building.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.5 Failure to comply

Intentionally refusing to cooperate and/or comply upon the lawful request of any state employee.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25.000)

3.6 Failure to identify

Intentionally refusing to provide any means of state issued identification upon the lawful request of a state employee.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

3.7 Illegal gambling

The participation or organization of gambling, unauthorized by the State.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.8 Impersonation

3.8.1 Impersonation of a civil servant

The unauthorized appropriation of powers given to a civil servant, by the state.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of forty-five thousand dollars ($45.000)

3.8.2 Impersonating a law enforcement officer

The unauthorized appropriation of powers given to a law enforcement officer, by the state.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.9 Laws for election

A set of laws specifically for any party candidate or party member that is participating in an upcoming election for the position of Governor/Governess of San Andreas.

3.9.1 Breach of electoral silence

Any form of campaigning within five hundred (500) meters of the voting booth, during the active voting procedures.

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

3.9.2 Blocking a voting site

Intentional blocking or otherwise limiting citizens of their right to vote, through means of threat and/or physical restraint.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.9.3 Illegal persuasion of votes

Any attempt of persuading citizens to vote in a particular way, through the exchange of material benefits or favors.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35.000)

3.10 Battery of a public servant

Intentional infliction of bodily injury, however non-lethal, to an employee of the state.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifteen thousand dollars ($15.000)

3.11 Attempted murder of a public servant.

Attempted murder, directly or indirectly, of state or federal employed personnel.

Categorized as a Class A felony, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.12 False reporting

Alerting the authorities, knowing that the details of the incident are incorrect or the incident itself did not occur, or alerting those otherwise considered irrelevant to the official duties of the law enforcing branch.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.13 Bribery

3.13.1 Active bribery

The offering of money or favor a person in a position of trust.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.13.2 Passive bribery

The receiving or acceptance of money or favor given or promised in order to influence the judgment or conduct of a person in a position of trust.

Categorized as a Class A felony, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.13.3 Quid Pro Quo

Any means of an exchange of goods and/or services, in which one transfer is contingent upon the other.

Categorized as a Class A felony, dismissal and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.14 Failure to pay fines

Failure to pay the public treasure a sum of money fixed by law after an offense has been committed.

Categorized as a Class C felony and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000) Holds no right to bail, until the public treasure has received the total owed sum.

3.15 Escape from custody

3.15.1 Evading arrest

Fleeing from a police officer attempting to arrest, detain, or investigate them.

Categorized as a Class C felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.15.2 Assisting the evasion of arrest

Assisting a citizen to evade arrest.

Categorized as a Class C felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.16 Professional ethics

3.16.1 Street harassment towards a colleague

Rude, derogatory, or unwelcome comments, whistles, or any other unwelcome form of sexual verbal interaction, towards a colleague.

Categorized as a Class D felony, dismissal, and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

3.16.2 Hostile work environment

Behavior within a workplace that creates or supports an environment that is difficult or uncomfortable for another person to work in.

Categorized as a Class C felony, dismissal, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.16.3 Sexual harassment towards a colleague

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature, towards a colleague.

Categorized as a Class C felony, dismissal, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.17 Going absent without leave

Absent without authority from one's place of duty in the armed forces.

Categorized as a Class A felony, dismissal, and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.18 Provoking of a public servant

To induce someone to act or react as a direct result of one's deliberate acts to annoy or harass, to an employee of the state

Categorized as a Class D felony and entails a monetary penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50.000)

3.19 Tax evasion

Illegal act of intentionally avoiding paying taxes owed to the government.

Categorized as a Class B felony and entails a monetary penalty of the unpaid tax amount but not exceeding eighty thousand dollars ($80.000)

Article 4. Malfeasance

4.1 Disobeying an order

To refuse and/or fail to follow a lawful order given by their superior officer.

Categorized as a Class C felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

4.2 Professional misconduct

Conducting oneself in a manner of professionally unsuitable, potentially dangerous to patients, incompetent, disruptive, abusive, or illegal.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

4.3 Sabotage

To deliberately destroy and/or damage weaponry, ammunition, goods, or items of state property, to hinder or halt any operation initiated by the state.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

4.4 Espionage

The crime of spying or secretly watching a person, company, government, etc. for the purpose of gathering secret information or detecting wrongdoing, and to transfer such information to another organization or state.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

4.5 Conduct unbecoming

The conduct on the part of a state employee that is contrary to the public interests, and/or which harms their standing of the profession in the eyes of the public.

Categorized as a Class A felony and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

4.6 Corruption.

Conducting themselves in a dishonest and/or fraudulent behavior, by those residing in power given by the state.

Categorized as a Class A felony, and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

4.7 Disclosure of a state secret

Conducting themselves in a dishonest and/or fraudulent behavior, by those residing in power given by the state.

Categorized as a Class A felony, and entails a monetary penalty of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75.000)

Article 5. Judicial and Statute crimes

5.1 Disobeying a judicial order

To refuse and/or fail to follow a lawful order given by the Governor/Governess, Attorney General and/or the judiciary members of the chambers.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

5.2 Disruption of a trial

Interfering with the orderly administration of justice, impairing the authority or dignity of the court and/or disrupts the legal process in the courtroom.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

5.3 Dishonoring of a judiciary member

Dishonoring the position of a judicial officer during the performance, and/or in relation to previous performance of their official capacity.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

5.4 Contempt of court

Disobeying a judiciary member of chambers, and/or found otherwise disobedient to an order of the court.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25.000)

5.5 Ill-use of a judicial permit

Any misconduct through the usage of a Judicial permit issued by the Department of Justice, contrary to the legislative guidance as established by law.

Categorized as a Class B felony, revocation of license, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

5.6 Forged evidence

Tampering with and/or forging evidence for the purpose of influencing the outcome in a court case.

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

5.7 Perjury

Act of swearing a false oath or falsifying an affirmation to tell the truth, whether spoken or in writing, concerning matters material to an official proceeding

Categorized as a Class B felony, holds no right to bail and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

Article 6. Traffic Regulations

6.1 Speed violation

6.1.1 Minor speed violation

Speeding five (5) to thirty (30) kilometers an hour over the speed limit.

Classed as a Class C infraction, and entails and entails a monetary penalty of eight thousand dollars ($8.000)

6.1.2 Mediocre speed violation

Speeding thirty-one (31) to sixty (60) kilometers an hour over the speed limit.

Classed as a Class B infraction, and entails and entails a monetary penalty of fifteen thousand dollars ($15.000)

6.1.3 Major speed violation

Speeding sixty-one (61) to ninety (90) kilometers an hour over the speed limit.

Classed as a Class A infraction, revocation of driver's license and entails a monetary penalty of twenty thousand dollars ($20.000)

6.2 Jaywalking

To cross a street carelessly or in an illegal manner to be endangered by traffic.

Classed as a Class C infraction, and entails a monetary penalty of five thousand dollars ($5.000)

6.3 Abandonment of a vehicle

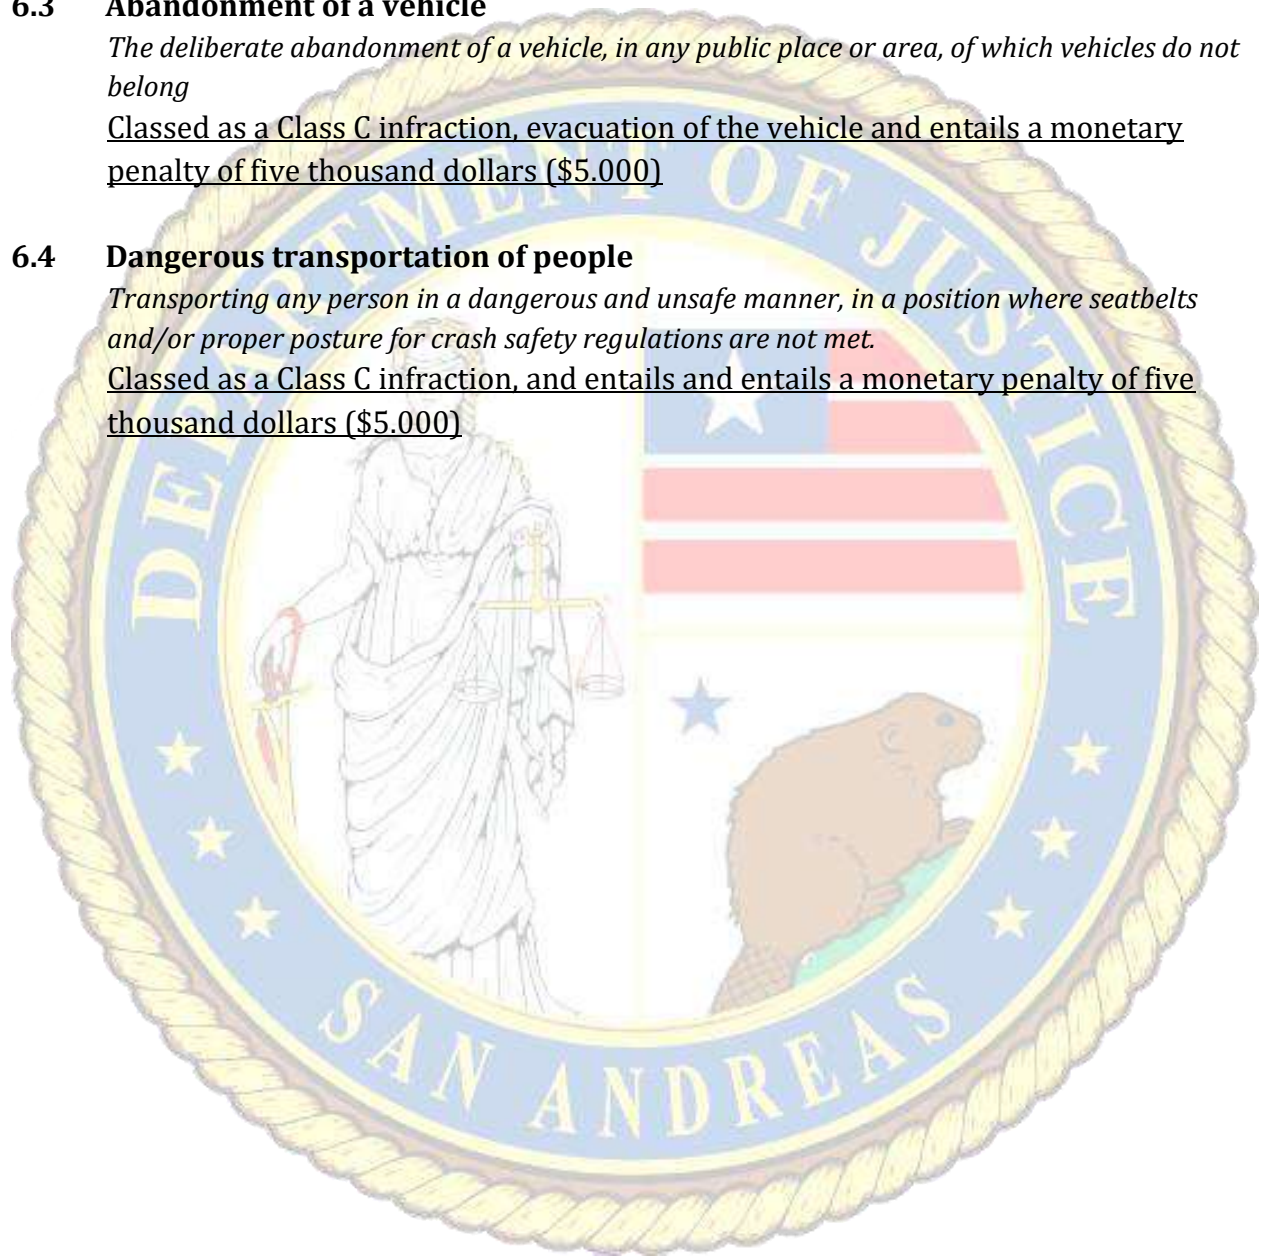

The deliberate abandonment of a vehicle, in any public place or area, of which vehicles do not belong

Classed as a Class C infraction, evacuation of the vehicle and entails a monetary penalty of five thousand dollars ($5.000)

6.4 Dangerous transportation of people

Transporting any person in a dangerous and unsafe manner, in a position where seatbelts and/or proper posture for crash safety regulations are not met.

Classed as a Class C infraction, and entails and entails a monetary penalty of five thousand dollars ($5.000)

Signed into law by the following state leaders:

Governor of San Andreas

Bryan Barba

Bryan Barba

General of the National Guard

Alfie Dior

Alfie Dior

Chief of Police

Chanush Movva

Chanush Movva

Director of the Federal Investigation Bureau

John Profit

John Profit

Sheriff of Blaine County

Mickey Uchiha

Mickey Uchiha

Chief of EMS

Shantanu Maximoff

Shantanu Maximoff

Current Authors:

Bryan Barba
Bobs Builder
Jimin Hill

Previous Authors:

Sophia DeGrey
Che Murtagh
Donny Hoblos
Rodrego Verlice
Dray Ottoman
Bobs Builder

